The Progress - Bulletin and its seven other newspapers (including this one) yesterday became part of the Donrey Media Group, which now owns newspapers, television and radio stations and other businesses in seven states.

By the purchase of all of the stock of the Progress-Bulletin Publishing Co., the Donrey organization acquired that newspaper and its two wholly-owned subsidiaries, The Daily Report Co. and Bonita Publishing Co.

Under the new ownership are the two dailies, the Pomona Progress-Bulletin and the Ontario Daily Report, and the six Bonita weekly newspapers, the La Verne Leader, San Dimas Press, Diamond Bar-Walnut Valley Bulletin, Upland News, Montclair Tribune and Cucamonga Times.

Publication of all of them will be continued under the same local management, with no change in personnel or editorial policies. A.T. Richardson, one of the publishers of the Progress-Bulletin ever since 1905, remains chairman of the board and his son, Charles T. Richardson, continues as general manager.

The Donrey Media Group is predominantly a mass communications company headed by Donald W. Reynolds, founder and president. Headquarters are in Fort Smith, Ark., where he bought two daily newspapers in 1940. Since then its ever increasing number of wholly owned companies has become an organization operating until now in six states, Alaska, Arkansas, Hawaii, Nevada, Oklahoma and Texas.

With the purchase here it now owns 21 daily newspapers, six weekly newspapers, six radio and four television stations, three outdoor advertising companies, and numerous other companies in diversified fields in seven states.

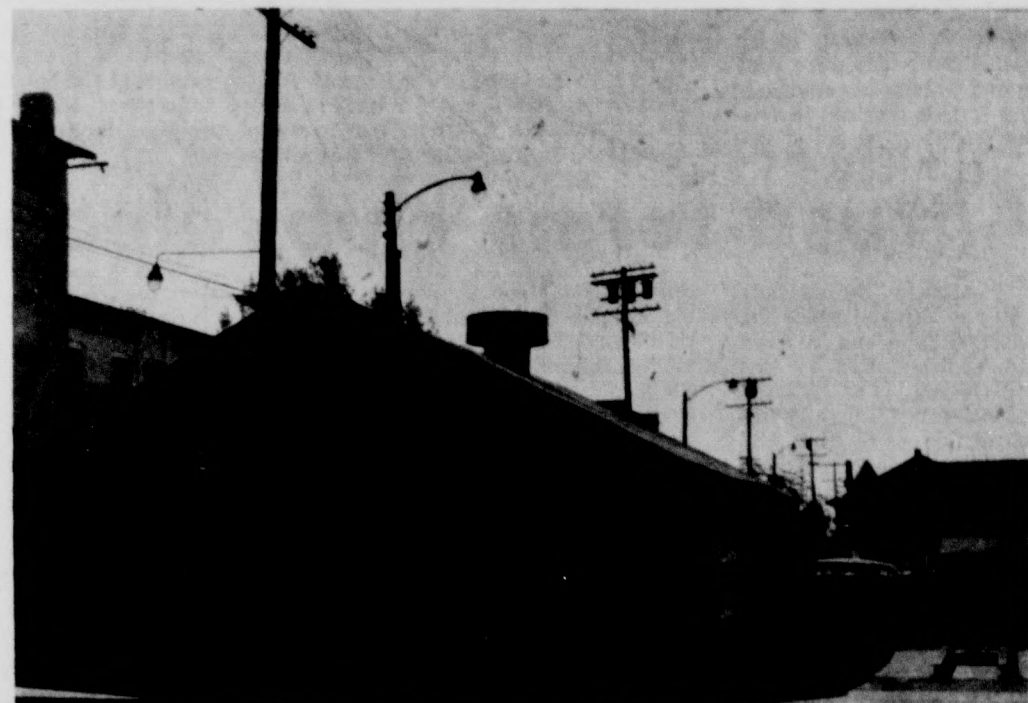

As president of the Donrey Media Group and the more than 40 individual companies comprising it, Donald Reynolds maintains constant and direct interest in both operations and personnel. His unique organization combines the advantages of a major operation with those inherent in small companies with local autonomy, each one individually managed and operated.

Fred W. Smith, executive director of the Donrey Media Group Western Properties, announced that the Progress - Bulletin, The Daily Report and the six local weekly newspapers will continue to be operated under the same local management and with the same personnel as before.

"We are delighted to extend our operations into California, and particularly into the Pomona Valley," Smith said. "We are much impressed by the many natural advantages this area enjoys, the high caliber of the business enterprises here and those who direct them, and the potential for the continued steady growth of the local communities."

"The people of Pomona Valley can be assured that these fine local newspapers and their staffs will provide the same outstanding service that this area has received from them for so many years."

Town Center decision approaches

When all parking is constructed there will be some 325 spaces in the four lots, including existing parking. Parking will be maintained on both Ninth St. and Second Ave. when the Town Center is completed, but in the center of streets instead of at the curb. Work on parking lots will get underway soon, possibly next month.

Final decisive action on the question of Upland's Downtown moving ahead to attract and hold customers in the face of the Montclair Plaza Challenge is getting close, and is the subject of much discussion, and meetings.

Bids will be opened on actual reconstruction of streets, curbs, sidewalks, kiosks, landscaping and all the other beautification trimmings at 10 a.m., Wednesday, Nov. 22.

Public hearing on the Upland Town Center is set for the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 28, at which affected property owners can appear and be heard.

Some of them did just that at an informational session late Monday afternoon in City Council Chambers, where City Manager Elwin Alder, City Engineer Fred Baldwin, Dale King, and Landscape Architect Paul Hershey explained the entire Town Center Project and answered questions.

Present were about 15 persons with an interest in the proceedings, many of whom indicated by their questions and comments that there will be some opposition to formation of the district that will revitalize Downtown Upland.

Not present were merchants and property owners who see the Town Center Beautification project as the salvation of the heart of the City.

Hershey, and Tont Malone, Chamber of Commerce manager, told a questioner that experience in other cities that had converted old downtown streets to shopping malls had enjoyed an increase in business.

Fresno even had an increase during construction of the mall in that city, Hershey said, in fact, it increased some 50%, probably because of the curious doing some shopping along with looking.

Subdividers may have to donate park lands

Upland City Council will hold a public meeting to consider the adoption of an ordinance that will help expand the city park system by requiring the dedication of land and/or payment of fees for park and recreational facilities in subdivisions.

Purpose of the ordinance is to provide park and recreational facilities to serve the residents of future subdivisions. Under provisions of the ordinance, subdividers will be required, as a condition of subdivision approval, to dedicate land or pay a fee to be used for park purposes.

The amount of land or size of fee required is based upon a formula related to the size of the proposed subdivision.

This ordinance was recommended to the City Council by the City's Park and Recreation Committee. Copies of the proposed ordinance are available at the office of the City Clerk.

The City Council urged all interested citizens to attend this meeting and express their opinion about the proposed ordinance.

Band slates appearance

Upland High's Highlander Band will march in the West Arcadia Invitational Band Review that starts at 10 a.m., Saturday, Nov. 18.

UHS will be competing in the A Division, schools with enrollment up to 3,450 students.

Upland's ready-to-march time is set at 11:22 a.m. More than 60,000 saw the parade last year.

Following the parade, cash and trophy awards valued at more than $1,760 will be presented to winning bands at the Arcadia High stadium.

Construction begun on West End sewer lines

Construction of the Chino Basin Municipal Water District's industrial waste disposal system which will carry waste from the west end of San Bernardino County was begun recently in the Pomona area.

Evidence of the work in Pomona is particularly noticeable in the Westmont area where excavators have been working in Denison Street.

The 36-inch reinforced concrete line already has been laid under Brea Canyon Road and the excavation in Denison has an estimated Dec. 8 completion date.

From Denison, the line will run under the Corona Expressway, out Butterfield Road to Grand Avenue and east on Grand to the West End.

A 500-foot stretch in the vicinity of Park Avenue was laid ahead of time to accommodate reconstruction on the avenue, a consulting engineer for the project said.

The engineer, Thomas Mitchell of the James Montgomery Co., said the start was made in Westmont because it is the low point in the two-county project and it is the practice of pipe layers to work from the low to the high ground.

From Brea Canyon Road near General Dynamics, the line will run to the industrial plant line near the Roselawn off of Sanitation District 21. There the effluent will join industrial sewage from Pomona Valley communities for the long flow to the ocean.

On leaving the city limits, the line will follow Grand to Monte Vista Avenue where it will join to Phillips Boulevard. It will follow Phillips out to Bon View Avenue.

From there, it will split, one leg following Bon View south to Philadelphia Street, out Philadelphia to Patton Road and along Patton Road to Etiwanda Avenue. The course will then be north on Etiwanda to the San Bernardino Freeway.

The other leg will course northeasterly towards Holt Avenue and by the Ontario International Airport to Cucamonga Creek. From the creek it will proceed north to Valley Boulevard, then east on Valley to Etiwanda Avenue.

On leaving Etiwanda Avenue the project will proceed out Jurupa Avenue to Fontana.

Provisions have been made for future industries on Pomona's east side to tie on to the line, Mitchell said.

The present pipe laying is part of a $16 million project approved by property owners in the Chino Basin Municipal Water District. The work is being done by Dorfman Construction Co. of Los Angeles under a $1,534,613 contract and Drain Line Inc. of Los Angeles under a $2,887,713 contract.

Mitchell said there has been some costly and dangerous vandalism.

Meat Cutters join strike

Butchers and meatcutters in Upland and other major West End markets walked off the job at 9 a.m. Monday morning, joining more striking butchers in the Southland from Bakersfield to San Diego.

More than 1,100 supermarkets are involved.

Picket lines were formed by 10:30 as union captains arrived at stores with signs and instructions.

The walkout was called after negotiations between the Meat Cutters Union, AFL-CIO, and the Food Employers Council deadlocked. One picket said he understood one of the issues was a guaranteed 40-hour work week.

Management called the walkout foolish and charged union negotiators failed to refer the latest offer to rank and file membership.

"These butchers don't know what they're striking against," said the president of the employers council, Robert K. Fox.

He said the final offer was similar to a package ratified last week by the Teamsters Union.

The settlement with the Teamsters called for a 63-1/2 cent package over the next five years and included wage and fringe benefits. The contract between the employers and the 10,000-member AFL-CIO Meatcutters Union expired Nov. 5, and the butchers have been working on a day-to-day basis since then.

Despite the walkout, markets were expected to have some meat in their cases.

A council spokesman said preparations for the strike were made and two processing plants were leased in the event of a walkout.

Earlier in the talks a union spokesman, Oliver Holmes, accused management of failing to bargain realistically.

MEATCUTTERS or BUTCHERS struck major supermarkets in this area and throughout Southern California Monday, and started walking picket lines. Some smaller independents were not affected.

ATTRACTIVELY DRESSED -- Junior high school students at Pioneer Junior High are seen checking the completed effect of their efforts in a mirror held by principal, Shelby Forrest, in the background. As part of a new program to encourage the student body to abide by the dress code, the school's student council is displaying suitably dressed mannequins for all students to view in the office window. Student council members are from the left, Brad Altman, Tina Eskay, Ted Jacobson and Sandy Lubarsky.

Pioneer develops positive approach to school dress

Pioneer Junior High is trying something new as a means to encourage acceptable and neat student dressing habits at the school.

The student council recently purchased two life size mannequins, a boy and a girl, and dressed them in teen clothing to delight any teacher's eye. They have these models on display in the large window of Principal Shelby Forrest's office. Next to the display, the students have placed a full length mirror for passing students to check on their own appearance and hemlines.

This new method, according to Forrest, seems to be very effective. He said this week, "We really don't seem to have much of a problem here. All the students dress in a very pleasant acceptable manner, and we would like to keep it this way."

The principal calls this student council method, "A positive approach to the school dress code problem." The models are dressed by the students and this project is completely under the direction of the student body.

Future plans call for dressing the models in "tacky" outfits, to demonstrate, "How Not to Dress For School."

Town Center

Upland, awaiting the outcome of the Nov. 28 hearing. If the District is abandoned, they plan to move.

On the same side of the coin, Blanchard told the gathering that his office had received calls from potential investors and business people who are also awaiting the formation of the district, interested in moving into a revitalized downtown, not a stagnant one.

A couple of probably protests may come from one man who objected to parking lots being built too far from his particular store, and a man who has moved his business to another area of the valley, and who felt that he hadn't been fully consulted and informed.

Two notices have been mailed out during the week prior to Monday's meeting and other meetings have been held almost weekly for the last 15 months or so.

Alder commented that despite the numerous public meetings so everyone could get into the planning, few had attended.

Some Questions centered on parking lots, which are not part of the Town Center District, but are the activity of a separate Parking district.

Two existing lots are going to be expanded, and two more added, on the periphery of the Town Center Project.

Alder said work will get underway on parking prior to Christmas.

Also prior to that time, some improvement work will get started on streets around the Town Center, First Ave., Third Ave., A and C Sts.,

Pathfinders collect food for Navajo

On Halloween Eve Oct. 31 the West End Maple Leaf Pathfinders dressed in their uniforms went from door to door asking for food and clothing or some other little goodies, not for themselves, but for the Navajo Indians.

The West End citizens must have been pleased with this way of celebrating Halloween as was evidenced by the food and clothing that was given to them.

The 32 Pathfinders and their counselors received 877 cans of food and 527 articles of clothing.

The clothing was sorted and boxed by the Dorcas Society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and is already at the Monument Valley Mission to be given to the Navajos. The cans of food will be taken to the Monument Valley Mission by truck and will be distributed for Thanksgiving.

The Pathfinders themselves, said that they enjoyed this way of celebrating Halloween much better than going out for themselves, because they were doing something for some one else.

by Gene Hendl
Ontario - Pomona Association, for Retarded Children, located at 9160 Monte Vista, will celebrate its 17th Birthday and dedicate the new OPARC Center building, Sunday.

The non-profit organization, an agency of the Pomona Valley and West End United Fund, receives its support from contributions of various service groups, United Funds, and tuition paid by the parents of the trainees enrolled at the Center.

Started in 1950 the present day OPARC program took root when a small group of parents, realizing a need existed for classes for the trainable retarded, organized the Ontario-Upland-Pomona Chapter of the Exceptional Children's Foundation of Los Angeles.

The first class was housed in the old Upland Community building on Campus Ave. Mrs. Ernest Keechler of Chino volunteered as the first teacher of the group. The training plan she chose involved coordination development, speech, simple manual accomplishment, and socialization.

Two years later Miss Irene McAdoo became the first employed teacher and the class was moved to Claremont. In 1953 the class was taken over by the Los Angeles County School System and became one of the first public schools for the trainable retarded in the country. It is presently known as the Elmwood School of Pomona.

The following year a new group was formed in Ontario with Mrs. Enid Williams--presently, principal of OPARC Center Day School--being hired as the teacher.

In the summer of that year swim classes for the trainees were provided at the Ontario YMCA and have continued ever since as an integral part of the OPARC program. In the same year the organization withdrew from the Exceptional Children's Foundation and became known by its present name, receiving its charter in 1957.

April, 1967, marked the establishment of a workshop--now known as OPARC Habilitation Center--for young adults in Pomona. Instructors were hired to supervise the project. Work contracted for the trainees comprised the sorting of airplane parts. The benefit derived included a sense of responsibility and freedom.

In 1959 a part-time executive secretary was employed to handle the paperwork and to better inform the public about the retarded individual. Another program was started in 1959 when OPARC trainees began participating in Retarded Children's Summer Camp at Oak Glenn, Yucca Park.

Plans for the present building of the Center were started in 1962 when land was purchased in Montclair. The following year a full time executive secretary and a typist were employed, and in 1964 ground was broken for construction of the new building.

After 1965, in order to provide effective work training for the handicapped, a workshop director and a bookkeeper were obtained with federal funds granted to OPARC through the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Further expansion of the Habilitation Center program was provided this past June when the Department of Labor certified the Center to operate a work activities center in conjunction with the workshop.

August marked the complete occupancy of the new structure which houses the staff, Day School, and Habilitation Center.

Under the present Center operation the Day School holds classes from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Monday thru Friday composed of three divisions -- kindergarten, primary, and intermediate --with children ranging in age from 2 1/2 to 18 years.

The school teaches the child to function in a group, accept direction from other people other than his immediate family, become aware of the world around him, and acquire a concept of himself in relation to his outside environment.

Mrs. Mary Boyd, executive director of the Center, said of the retarded, "His needs are the same as any individual, but his ability to meet these needs are different."

"We try to help him solve basic problems by training early to develop maximum capabilities and self-reliance," she continued.

In the kindergarten and primary grades children are trained in acceptable social behavior, personal hygiene, and the full meaning of basic words in order to function in the home and community. In the advanced intermediate classes the individual concentrates on community awareness.

Since the Center is not bounded by rules, as in public schools, proven ideas in new ways of educating the mentally retarded can be employed.

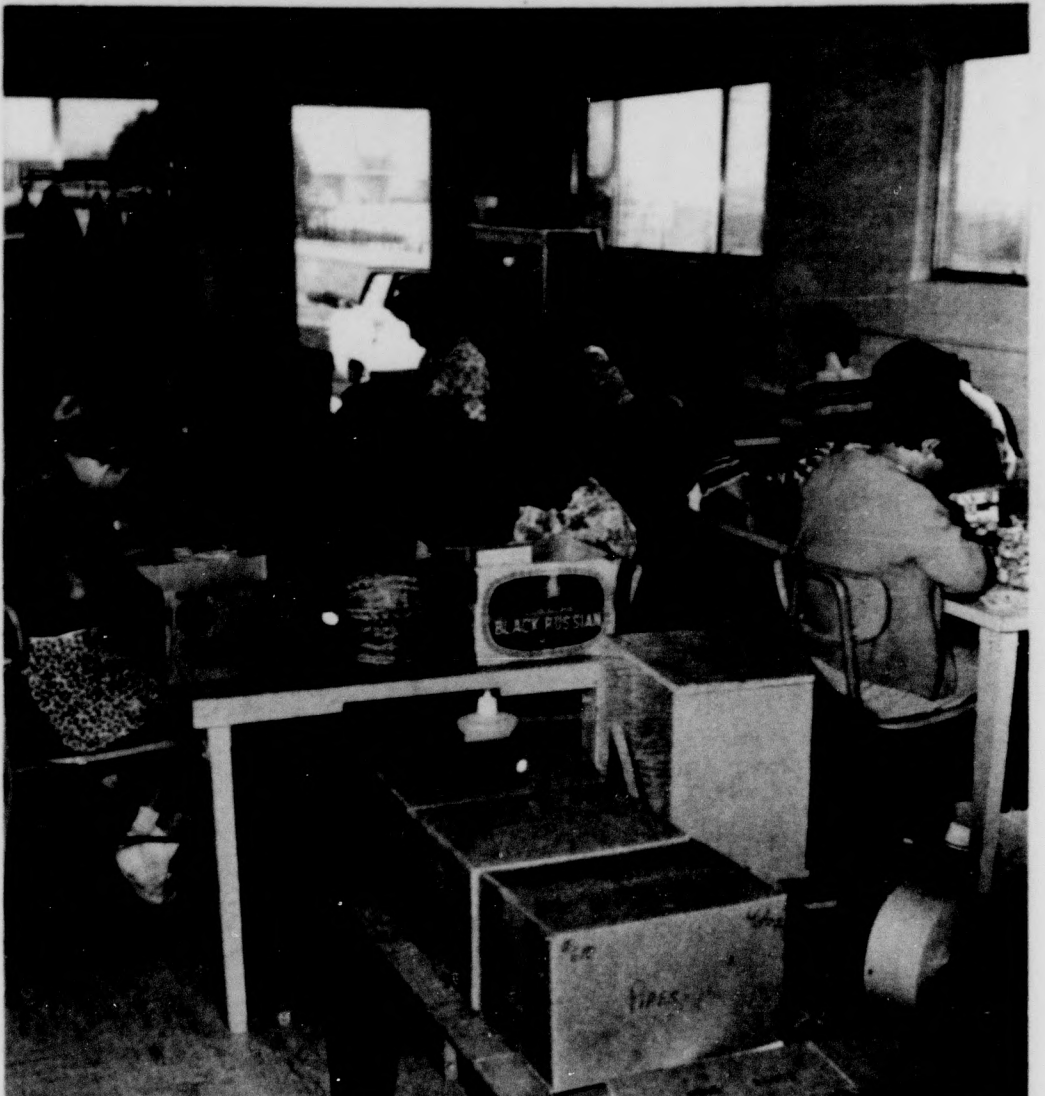

The Doman - Delacato system is one method used which retrains the person in the normal crawling-walking phase to develop coordination. This method is being used in the intermediate class in providing physical development to increase mental associativity.

The Habilitation Center Workshop trains the retarded and handicapped adults together to make full use of their capacity and develop sufficient work abilities for employment in the community for some.

"By putting retarded and handicapped people together we have found that the handicapped helped himself by meeting the contracts while the retarded excelled because they can do repetitive tasks continuously without boredom setting in," Mrs. Boyd explained.

The Workshop receives contracts from companies dealing in assembly line products which can be put together by hand. As a reward for their efforts and to help defray tuition expenses workers receive a "piece rate" of $1.40 an hour.

Summing up the purpose of the Center Mrs. Boyd said that "one of the biggest problems this country faces is the utilization of all available manpower to keep our economy strong. Of the 6 1/2 million United States citizens who happen to be retarded, 85% can be at least partially self supporting if given proper training therefore, we at OPARC must do our part to make the mentally retarded an integral and useful individual in society."

WORKERS in the OPARC Center Workshop keep busy by fulfilling contract agreements for clients obtained by the Center's Staff. The Workshop is one of the services offered by OPARC with the purpose of training the adult retarded and rehabilitating the handicapped.

For educational aid

Vets' children's age limit raised by VA

Effective Oct. 1, the maximum age limit for sons and daughters of veterans entitled to Veterans Administration educational financial assistance was raised from 23 to 26, it was announced Nov. 10 by Mort Webster, Manager of VA's Southern Regional Office.

Eligible for this help under the War Orphans Educational Assistance program are the sons and daughters of veterans who died or were permanently and totally disabled as the result of a service-connected injury or illness.

They may receive grants from the VA up to $130 a month for 36 months of approved, full-time college or vocational training. Lesser grants are paid for three-quarters or half-time training.

While an 18 to 26 age limit generally applies, Webster said, a young person may begin school before age 18 and, in certain instances, continue after age 26.

Marriage is not a bar to this benefit.

Generally, benefits under this program are for students enrolling in colleges, universities and technical schools. Below college-level courses may be taken only in schools which offer specialized training that will fit a student for a vocational goal.

A person entitled to assistance under this program who is handicapped by a physical or mental disability may receive specialized training.

Specific information on eligibility, how to apply, specialized training, schools, educational costs and related matters may be obtained from VA office.

Single adults hear marriage counselor

Single adults in the Upland area are invited to hear Dr. Selden Marth, marriage counselor from Claremont, speak on "Society and the Single Person" at the Upland Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 15.

Church or non-church "Singletons" are urged to hear Dr. Marth and then participate in the small group discussions which follow.

The "Singletons" program is an attempt on the part of concerned church and community leaders to create an organization which will serve the particular needs of the many single persons in this area.

An effort to discover those particular needs and create a program to meet them will be the basis of the small group discussions following Dr. Marth's presentation. The First Methodist Church is located at 262 N. Euclid Avenue, Upland.

A Charleston contest, won by Mrs. Gerald Neisen of Chino, highlighted the games and dancing.

After a late buffet supper, door prizes were awarded.

Robert Allison

It was touch and go when it came time for U.S. Air Force tactical fighter pilot Major Robert M. Allison to strike his target during Operation Shenandoah II in Vietnam.

The F-4 Phantom pilot, son of Mrs. Mary J. Allison of 13432 Beach Ave., Venice, was supporting the U.S. infantry operation of a flight which was controlled by minutes and precision teamwork.

Major Allison and his fellow airmen were the last of three strike forces clearing a jungle area for the ground troops. The fighter-bomber pilots had eight minutes in which to do their job before artillery poured in.

Hampered by heavy helicopter traffic in the area, the F-4 pilots had as their target an elongated jungle strip shrouded by cloud layers. Major Allison and his flight broke through the clouds, made a dry run over the target and, with four minutes remaining, came in for the kill.

With expert weapons delivery, the Air Force pilots placed their bombs on target, secured the position for the soldiers and won a special commendation from Colonel Frank E. Blazey, commander of the 1st Infantry Division.

Major Allison and his fellow airmen participated in the operation as members of the 12th Tactical Fighter Wing at Cam Ranh Bay Air Base.

The major, who attended Santa Monica City College, was commissioned in 1944 through the aviation cadet program.

His wife, Barbara, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Widman of Mount Baldy.

William Woodward

Seaman Recruit William L. Woodward, USN, son of Mrs. Anita F. Woodward of 1509 N. Euclid Ave., Upland, is undergoing nine weeks of basic training at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill.

He is receiving instructions in Naval customs, courtesies and organization, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, damage control, first aid, swimming and survival, shipboard drills and sentry duty.

A program of physical fitness, military drill and inspections keeps the recruits mentally and physically alert during their training.

His Navy Classification tests will determine whether he will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship after his graduation.

Steve Malone

Army Private First Class Steve E. Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Malone of 225 S. Laurel, is expected home on Dec. 15 on 45 days' leave.

Upon completion of his leave Pvt. Malone will return to Frankfurt, Germany, where he will resume duty with the 109th Military Police Battalion of the V Corps Special Troops Battalion. He has served his last 18 months with the 109th and recently received a letter of commendation from his commanding officer for preventing a fellow soldier from taking his life.

Pvt. Malone enlisted in the Army in March, 1965.

Marine Private Richard M. Jones, son of Mrs. Myrtle B. Jones of 914 N. Second Ave., Upland, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

PC moves meeting one day

Because Thanksgiving falls on Thursday this year and so does the regular Planning Commission meeting, the Commission moved its meeting to Wednesday, Nov. 22.

Included on the agenda will be three public hearings.

One concerns an application to establish a six-person guest home at 965 N. Second Ave.

Another is a request to permit a garage to encroach eight feet into the 25-foot setback on the sixth lot north of 19th St. on the west side of Coolcrest Ave.

Another would permit variations in nine lots of a 10-acre tract on the southwest corner of 13th St. and San Antonio.

NROTC test date announced

Test date for the 22nd annual national competitive NROTC examination has been set as Dec. 9, 1967. Parents and high school officials should remind eligible high school seniors and graduates to submit their applications before November 17, 1967.

The Regular NROTC Program offers an outstanding opportunity for a young man to gain a regular commission while studying at one of the 52 NROTC colleges and universities. The Navy furnishes tuition, fees, books, and uniforms, plus a subsistence allowance of $50 per month to NROTC Midshipmen. Each summer NROTC Midshipmen go on interesting and rewarding at-sea training periods. After completing his college course and all military requirements, an NROTC Midshipman is commissioned as a regular officer in the U.S. Navy or Marine Corps.

"West End United Fund had reached 64.2% of the total goal with a $215,290 in cash and pledges recorded in the United Fund Office," it was announced Nov. 8 by Lew Genge, 1967 Campaign Chairman. Mr. Genge further added that "although the monies are being returned to the United Fund office more slowly than in previous years, yet, there is a remarkable increase noted in the giving of most divisions throughout the current drive. This gives the feeling that the goal of $335,000 will be reached in the near future for distribution among the 27 participating agencies."

The following organizations have contributed beyond previous giving records: Armstrong Nurseries - 93 employees gave $2,300; Bank of America, Cucamonga Branch - 12 employees gave $288; Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan - 12 employees gave $233; Barson Machine Company - 41 employees gave $1,652; Data Design Labs - 42 employees gave $1,949; Edwanda Steel increased employee giving over 200% - $3,697 given;

Euclid Engineering increased 480%: Vavrinek, Trine, Day and Jones - 7 employees gave $175; Bateman, Eichler, Hill & Richards - 4 employees gave $148; California Air National Guard increased their giving 800% with 150 employees giving $845; First National Bank and Trust Company gave $3,700 with 150 employees contributing; Security First National, Upland Branch - 19 employees gave $493.

In citing the above records of giving, Mr. Genge further added, "We're over halfway to our total goal and with special effort on the part of the entire citizenry throughout the West End area, many wonders will be worked through the 27 agencies receiving these monies."

Everest climber to address Eagles

Norman G. Dyhrenfurth, organizer, planner and leader of the American team which climbed Mount Everest, will be guest speaker at the annual Old Baldy Council Eagle Scout recognition banquet to be held Nov. 20 at Diamond Bar Country Club.

The Swiss-born Dyhrenfurth, who now lives in Santa Monica, has received international acclaim for his group's feat of planting the American flag atop the world's highest mountain in 1963. He has also scaled many other of the world's most difficult peaks.

More than 80 Eagle Scouts of Old Baldy Council as well as their adult sponsors will attend the 1967 recognition dinner.

Dyhrenfurth started his mountain climbing career at the age of 8 in the Alps. He added to his experience by climbing various U.S. mountains and later the Himalayas.

He was the official photographer of the Swiss expedition to Everest in 1952 and in 1958 he roved the Himalayan wilderness seeking signs of the yeti, better known as the Abominable Snowman. He also was a member of a Swiss team that made the first ascent of Mount Dhaulagiri (26,976 feet -- the highest ever climbed without oxygen) in 1960.

Symphony to note Reformation Dec. 1

The West End Symphony Orchestra will join churches of the area in the celebration of the 450th anniversary of the founding of Protestantism by Martin Luther by playing Felix Mendelssohn's "Reformation Symphony" (No. 5 in D Major) at a concert to be given Friday, Dec. 1 at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of the new Ontario High School, corner of Francis and Palmetto.

The symphony was composed in 1830 to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the Augsburg Protestant Confession, the creed of the Lutheran Church. The religious element is injected into the work through the use of two pieces of liturgical music -- the "Dresden Amen", and the Lutheran chorale, "A Mighty Fortress".

Other works to be played under the direction of conductor Robert Cole include the Prelude to Act 3 of "Lohengrin" by Wagner, and "Fantasia on Greensleeves" by R. Vaughan Williams. Operatic arias will be sung by Bruce Yarnell, nationally known baritone.

Hadassah sets night at theater

Last call was issued for tickets for the Ontario-Hadassah Theatre Party to be held Saturday, Nov. 18 at 8:30 p.m. at the Gallery Theatre, 680 Foothill Blvd. in Upland. The theatre-in-the-round production will be "Five On A Honeymoon."

After the performance, ticket-holders will be welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Perlman for "coffee and--". For tickets and further information, call 985-1356 or 626-0158.

Hadassah, The Women's Zionist Organization of America, recently held its 53rd National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida, at which time, in a special message, President Lyndon B. Johnson declared "At a time when our nation is moving to right past wrongs and end the injustice that for too long has marred the basic premise of our democratic life, Hadassah's membership is well equipped to face the challenge before us."

The Ontario Chapter welcomes membership. Mrs. Josef Held, President, has announced plans for two important forthcoming events.

Driver information fed computer

Driver license and traffic citation facts about one million California motorists have been transcribed into a new electronic system in Sacramento, according to State Department of Motor Vehicles Director Verne Orr.

Data concerning the rest of the state's 10.5 million drivers are being computerized as fast as possible. "Every California driver whose permanent license number terminates on 00 through 06 has had his identity and traffic law violation file fed into the computer," Orr said.

"By ascending through the digits we are filing additional drivers' records electronically at the rate of 100,000 a week."

By 1970 the records of all 10.5 million California motorists will be instantly accessible, not by searching through a file drawer full of papers but by "dialing" the license number.

Visual reading screens and print-out machines installed in California's major population centers will soon be linked by direct cable to the central data bank in Sacramento, he added.

"We are approaching the time," he said, "when peace officers, insurance companies, the DMV, or motorists themselves, can see the nonconfidential driving record of any California motorist a minute or two after the inquiry has been fed into the computer in cities from San Diego to Redding."

"It's up to every motorist to make sure that his file spells out 'safe driver,'" Automobile registration data will soon be keyed into the same computer system.

Highway use taxes split

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy announced the distribution of $48,063,280 among the State, cities and counties as the September apportionment of highway users taxes.

The total was derived from the following sources: gasoline tax, $45,136,363; diesel fuel tax, $1,533,293; by transfer from the Motor Vehicle Transportation Tax Fund, $1,392,674; and the balance from miscellaneous sources.

Three-way tie

IF--big word in SAL

IF...

That's the big word in the San Antonio League now because the championship is in doubt, with three teams tied for first place, Upland, Pomona and Ganesha, all with identical 5-1 league records.

Upland suffered its first loss last week end at the hands of the Red Devils of Pomona, whose defense gets the credit for stopping the powerful Highlanders twice on the one yard line in the final quarter of the game.

Upland scored 15 points on two touchdowns, two Kugut kicks and a safety, while Pomona wound up with 21 points.

Upland's next opponent is Ganesha, so one of the two leading teams is going to be knocked out of the race on the UHS gridiron Friday night.

Another answer will be learned Saturday night, to the question of whether an improved Montclair 11 can topple the Red Devils. Montclair is getting stronger and has won the last three games.

If Upland wins and Pomona loses, Upland will claim the title. If both win, it's a two-way tie, same thing as if Ganesha overpowers the Highlanders and Pomona gets past Montclair. (Pomona would probably be CIF representative in a tie, having beaten both potential co-champions.)

Big IF.

In Saturday's fateful game Upland scored first with a 67-yard drive capped by an 11-yard run by quarterback Vance Willison.

It was seven-all after Pomona retaliated with a drive of its own.

Upland scored again in the second, only to have the TD called by a penalty, but the Highlanders turned right around and did it again, making their score 13 in the second.

Gary Cooper carried 35 yards and brother Jim toted the pigskin the last seven to pay dirt.

But it was in that second period that the Red Devils notched all their points.

They drove 62 yards, including a 39-yard pass play that made the score 14-13.

An interception of a Willison screen pass intended for Jim Cooper wound up in the hands of Charles Penno the visiting Devils, and he galloped 19 yards to ice the victory.

It didn't look that way in the fourth, but the Highlanders couldn't crack that goal-line defense staged by the no-doubt worried Pomona players.

Upland won the statistical battle, but with 21-15 on the scoreboard, the statistics didn't count much.

Now it's beat Ganesha, and cheer the Cavaliers on to victory over Pomona.

UHS garners CC honors

Upland High's cross-country teams will represent the San Antonio League when the Highlanders compete in the CIF Prelims at the Sunny Hills course in Fullerton, tomorrow.

Upland obtained the right when it took team honors in both the varsity and JV contests in the San Antonio League cross-country finals last Friday at Mt. San Antonio College.

The Highlanders' varsity squad win was attributed to its strong team effort. As it's been the case in dual meet competition this year Upland's first five runners followed each other over the finish line taking 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th places.

Only loss for the Scots in a dual or triangular meet was at the hands of Pomona, but they got revenge in the SAL championship with a 30-59 advantage over the Red Devils.

Montclair High managed to finish second in the frosh-soph meet with Claremont taking first, Cavalier Mickey Senior finished high among individual runners gaining third place honors.

Blanchard Distributing is on top of the heap at the end of first round action in the Upland Winter Slo-Pitch League.

Jolley Farms and Agitator Shop are in striking distance just one game off the pace. The Mets and Mixers are just two games behind the leader. Any of the five teams must be considered a contender with one more round of play remaining.

Blanchard needed 10 innings to come from behind to dump the Mets 15 to 13 and hold sole possession of the top spot.

Five players are tied for homerun honors with three each. Phil Ross (Jolley Farms), Bill McCall (Agitator), Jack Hammond (Mets), Bill Blanchard and Jim Davis (Blanchard).

Citrus LL sets

Monday meeting

Cucamonga Citrus Little League will meet next Monday evening, November 20, at 7:30 at Alta Loma Junior High School.

All parents and friends of Little League were invited to attend.

Two major items on the agenda are a discussion of the proposed by-laws and a report from the County regarding the Vineyard Ave. field.

Trout planted

The Department of Fish and Game has scheduled the stocking of catchable-size rainbow trout late last week in the following Southern California waters:

LOS ANGELES COUNTY -- Bouquet Canyon Creek, Puddingstone Reservoir, San Dimas Reservoir.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY -- Arrowhead Lake, Big Bear Lake, Gregory Lake, Santa Ana River, South Fork Santa Ana River.

VENTURA COUNTY -- Piru Lake.

Emphysema is second among disabilities for which workers are awarded Social Security benefits. In California, the cost is more than $1.36 million each month. Emphysema is a major target for Christmas Seal contributions, which also fight asthma and chronic bronchitis.

P W teams victorious

Two Pee-Wee and one Midget game were won Sunday at the Alta Loma High School field.

The Upland Chargers continued their unbeaten record by a score of 37-13 over the Montclair Marauders.

Scoring was early in the first quarter on runs by David Carter and Rocky Chapman with Chapman pushing it over from the 2 yard line. PAT by Carter. After the Marauders were unable to move the ball and kicked, the Chargers had the ball on their 24 yard line when a pass was good from Chapman to Norman Falls for a pass run play of 51 yards for the second TD. PAT no good.

The Marauders bounced back in the second quarter on quarterback runs and a penalty on the Chargers. Then John Cosgrove ran 8 yards end around for a TD. PAT no good. Then after the kick the Marauders Mario Caridi intercepted a pass on the Chargers 10 and returned it to the 10 yard line of the Chargers. Again John Cosgrove scored the TD on an end run and the PAT. With less than 2 minutes in the half Rocky Chapman scored a TD from 9 yards out but PAT failed.

With 40 seconds in the half the Chargers kick and the second play saw Chapman intercept a pass on the Marauders 22 and ran for another TD. PAT no good.

The third quarter saw the Chargers keep the pressure on and Danny Carroll recovered a fumble on the first play from scrimmage on the 40 yard line. With runs by Carter and Chapman advancing the ball to the Montclair 15, Bob Rabun threw a pass to Chapman for a TD. PAT no good.

The game ended with the Chargers in possession of the game and ball and still undefeated for the season.

During half-time the Upland cheer leaders entertained the crowd of parents and fans who joined them in their cheers. A 50-50 drawing was held from tickets bought by the spectators during the previous game. The winning ticket was held by Mr. D. George who immediately donated $10 of his winnings back to Upland Pop Warner.

Upland Hawks came out on top in their clash with the San Dimas-La Verne Trojans by a score of 20-6. There was no scoring until the second quarter when Rudy Alonzo made Upland's first TD on a 40 yard run.

In the third quarter the Hawks scored again on a 40-yard run, this time by Gary Ware.

On a 30-yard passplay in the fourth quarter, Channing Wolfe found his target and Bob Fuentes ran the remaining distance for the Hawks final TD. Neal Boring ran over the only two extra points of the day for Upland.

Head Coach Chuck Harness commented that he was well pleased with the performance turned in by all his boys and singled out Ralph Valadez, Denny George and Steve Harness on defense and Neal Boring, John Nocella and Mark Rader on offense for the individual outstanding efforts.

NOTE FROM POP WARNER

To the residents and Pop Warner fans in Upland--Don't forget our Hawks are going to Fresno to play in the Raisin Bowl there on Thanksgiving weekend. Anyone who would like to help finance this trip, please contact our ways and means chairman, Mr. C. Carroll at 982-9684. The Upland Pop Warner organization has always been proud of our policy of not asking our boys to solicit funds or try to sell items such as candy and various types of tickets door to door. We feel they are doing their share by practicing faithfully and maintaining good grades in school.

Share of title? Braves blocked by Royal Oak

The coach who said that it's the defense that wins football games could have been thinking of the Alta Loma Braves' first defeat of the Hacienda League season Friday night at the hands of Royal Oak.

Royal Oak used a couple of passes for touchdowns but it took huge defensive effort to shackle the Alta Loma offense and win the game, which ended 14-0.

Royal Oak's Romans have allowed only one TD this season.

The Braves looked good during the first half, pretty well controlling things, but never crossing the magic line.

Playing down to the wire, the Braves were game to the end, threatening in the fourth quarter. They drove nearly the length of the field, from their own 33 to the Roman 10, but an interception of a Rocky Long pass ended the attempt to even things.

Minutes wore on, but the Braves continued to fight. They took a punt on their own 27 and returned it to the Royal Oak 25, but Royal Oak's defense proved tough, and another interception with less than two minutes left in the game, sealed the score at 14-0.

Next Friday night, the Braves could claim half of the Hacienda League Title by beating visiting Bassett at Chaffey College field. Kick-off time is 7:30.

That is, half of the title IF Royal Oak falls before Neff at Charter Oak High.

Pheasant prospects not bad

California's 1968 pheasant season opens Saturday, Nov. 18, with prospects slightly better than a year ago, the Department of Fish and Game reported this week.

The DFG reports all major pheasant areas had higher brood counts than a year ago, when 221,000 hunters bagged 758,100 ringnecks. Last year's bag included 134,000 hens, but there will be no hen in the bag allowed this year except in the traditional either-sex area of Southern California.

Hunting should be good in the northeast, with high brood counts on the Honey Lake, Tule, and Lower Klamath areas.

Birds are abundant in the Sacramento Valley, but most of the rice fields have been burned, and tough hunting is expected after the opening day shooting drives birds into tules and high fields.

The San Joaquin Valley should be slightly better than a year ago. Fresno County was the top pheasant hunting county in 1966, and should be at or near the top again.

The DFG reported it will stock the usual 19,500 birds in Southern California. It had been feared earlier that the full number would not be available because of disease among the birds of the principal supplier, but the DFG rounded up the birds in a nationwide canvass of pheasant breeders.

Areas scheduled for planting are the Owens Valley, Palo Verde Valley, Winterhaven, and Imperial areas.

The season will continue through Dec. 3 in northern and central California, and through Jan. 1 in Imperial County and eastern Riverside County. Shooting hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The bag and possession limit is two pheasants per day, 10 per season. Either-sex shooting is permitted only in the counties of San Luis Obispo, Kern, Inyo, Imperial, Mono, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, and Riverside. Only male pheasants may be taken elsewhere.

Archers will have a crack at pheasants Dec. 9, 10, 16, and 17 in most of the state, and Jan. 6, 7, 13, and 14 in Imperial and eastern Riverside County.

Pheasant hunters must possess a valid 1967 hunting license ($4) and pheasant tags ($2).

Dates for sportsmen

Thursday, Nov. 16 - Open trapping season on turkeys other than beaver (see regulations).

Saturday, Nov. 18 - Open pheasant hunting season.

Sunday, Dec. 3 - Close pheasant season in Northern and Central California.

PFF man gets post

Paul D. Walker, president of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, has been named to the United Community Funds committee of the California Savings and Loan League.

The committee was established this year by J. Ralph Stone, president of the league, to encourage savings and loan institutions to participate in community fund drives, and to set up yard sticks for donations.

Last year, Walker served as division chairman of the fund campaign for the Los Angeles County division of the state league. For his work, he was singled out for commendation by Robert S. Fuller, last year's president of the state organization.

William F. Montgomery, controller for Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, has returned from the 13th Annual Western Regional conference of the National Society of Controllers and Financial Officers of Savings Institutions.

The meeting was held recently in Honolulu. Montgomery said the conference was essentially a working session at which technical problems relating to investment portfolios and tax returns were discussed.

Montgomery was accompanied on the Hawaii trip by his wife.

William G. Bergman, Jr., legal counsel of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, has been appointed to the Attorneys Committee of the California Savings and Loan League.

The committee studies new legislation and court interpretations of existing laws and keeps the savings and loan industry informed of those changes, Bergman said.

Twice a year this committee calls a general meeting of the attorneys of all California savings and loan associations to discuss matters of mutual benefit of the savings and loan industry.

W. H. (Will) Chalton of 4417 N. Oak Lane, Claremont, a long-time Pomona resident and businessman, has been appointed senior disbursement processor of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The appointment was announced by Paul D. Walker, president of the association.

Employment census scheduled

During the week that the Census Bureau's population clock ticks off the arrival of the 200 millionth American, census workers will be taking an employment survey here. Director Leonard C. Isley of the Bureau's regional office in Los Angeles announced.

Interviewers will visit local residents Nov. 20-25 to ask about kinds of jobs, hours worked, time off, and job-hunting activities, the regional director said. The data accumulated will be used by the Department of Labor in updating national figures on employment and unemployment. The Census Bureau acts as fact-gathering agent for the Labor Department.

The survey is taken each month from a representative sample of households in 449 areas throughout the U.S. The identity of households surveyed is confidential by law, and the facts obtained are used for statistical purposes only.

GI home loans up in October

GI home loan applications increased from 2437 in September to 4674 in October, Mort Webster, VA's Southern California Manager reported today.

Appraisal requests for new homes decreased from 1339 in September to 961 in October, and appraisal requests for existing homes increased from 2703 in September to 2779 in October.

'Drawkab' dance planned by club

Saturday, Nov. 18, from 8 to 11:30, Foot 'N' Fiddle is having a "Drawkab" (backwards) square dance.

Program chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beeson, and decorating chairman, Mr. and Mrs. James Verbeck and Miss Jean Booth have planned a confusing evening -- members and guests were urged to come dressed backwards and enter into the fun.

Foot 'N' Fiddle dances at the La Verne American Legion Hall, 1550 Bonita, in the first and third Saturday of each month.

CURTAIN TIME -- Bill James, left, and Maxine Jantz in a scene from "Night Must Fall," a play by Emyln Williams is being presented by the Garrick Players Nov. 16, 17 and 18 at 126 East "C", Ontario at 8:15 p.m.

Fun, cash await Orange show competitors in March

Fun of competition, plus the chance to win cash, a trophy or a ribbon, will be an incentive for exhibitors at the 1968 National Orange Show coming up in San Bernardino, March 7-17.

A total of $36,785 in cash awards, trophies and ribbons is being offered exhibitors in the various departments, according to Lloyd Yount, president of the 1968 citrus exposition.

This figure is $1,785 more than offered at the 1967 exposition.

Biggest share of the cash awards go to Southern California communities and organizations competing for the $14,000 offered in the feature exhibits department. More than 30 southland exhibitors are expected to enter displays constructed with thousands of oranges and other citrus fruits -- to make the huge exhibit building a spectacle of color.

Cash awards in the amount of $6,300 go to San Bernardino County 4-H Club and Future Farmer of America exhibitors in the Junior Fair department. Small Claims -- Raises the jurisdiction of small claims courts from $200 to $300.

Emergency medical committee approved

SAN BERNARDINO (CNA) -- Appointment of an emergency medical care committee has been approved by the County Board of Supervisors, but naming committee members was put off to give time for a report on what segments of the community should be represented.

By Weitzman, executive secretary of the California Ambulance Society, told the Supervisors formation of the committee is mandatory by mid-1968, but by starting now the county could have a body to take care of such complaints as the one made several weeks ago by Supervisor Ruben Ayala against a Montclair hospital and a local doctor. This was due to the slowness in examination of a Chino girl killed after she was struck by a car.

Representatives of the Red Cross, the medical profession, hospitals and ambulance service operators was proposed by Weitzman.

On Veterans Day

Pettis asks 'enduring peace just dream?'

Veterans' Day -- Armistice Day, as it used to be called -- is one of our great national holidays. It is the day when we quietly and solemnly remember and salute this nation's veterans, whatever war they may have fought in.

"Armistice Day," originally established in remembrance of the day on which World War One ended, became "Veterans' Day" in 1954. General Eisenhower was our President then. As one of America's most famous military leaders, President Eisenhower wanted all veterans remembered.

He felt we should not limit the observance of a national holiday to the one happy occasion that ended the first world war. He wanted it to be wider in scope, to be as he put it -- "a day of rededication to the task of achieving an enduring peace."

"An enduring peace" -- is that just another dream always beyond our reach? Is it unfindable as the rainbow's end or the fountain of youth? That is what many Americans are asking themselves today.

Since our country proclaimed itself a free Nation, Americans have fought many wars for an enduring peace. Today, we are fighting once again for that same elusive objective. Today, the same questions are again being asked: Is 'right' honestly and truly on our side? Are we right to be involved in the struggle in Vietnam? Does the ultimate peace of the world really depend on the outcome of that war?

Perhaps the saddest part of it all is that the facts that we are getting about the war are too often garbled and contradictory. We are told one thing today; tomorrow, we may be told quite a different story. We say to ourselves, "perhaps we could reach some sort of a conclusion if we only knew the facts."

But we are not getting the facts. I well remember Defense Secretary McNamara's comment only four short years ago that -- and I quote -- "The corner has been turned" in the Vietnam war. He said American troops would start being withdrawn from that country by the end of that year. That was 1963.

I well remember the secretary telling Congress a few months later that most of the 15,000 troops in Vietnam would be home by the end of 1965. He also stated at the time that the United States -- and again I quote him -- "should not assume the primary responsibility for the war in South Vietnam."

Within months after making these statements, the United States escalated the bombing of North Vietnam and increased the number of American troops over there from about 15,000 to 175,000. At that time -- 1965 -- McNamara said -- again

I quote him -- "We are no longer losing the war."

Today, as you know, we have nearly half a million men in Vietnam and have suffered more than 100,000 casualties. And the end of that war is nowhere in sight.

Today, too, Americans are asking the same questions about this frustrating war in Southeast Asia that their forefathers must have asked in the midst of other wars: When will it be over? When will the armistice come?

Like Americans everywhere, I share these concerns. But I want the war ended on terms which are just and reasonable -- which will not desecrate the memories of the men and women who died in that faraway land for the freedoms which we hold so dear back home.

That's the thought I want to leave with you as we salute the nation's veterans on this day established in their honor.

65,000 train under GI Bill

A total of 65,500 California veterans and service-men entered training under the G.I. bill during the first 13 months (June 1, 1966 to June 30, 1967) of the program, Mort Webster, manager of the Los Angeles VA regional office announced.

Of this number, 55,000 were veterans and 1500 men still in service who enrolled at the college level, he added, and 8000 were veterans and 1000 were servicemen who enrolled in vocational training or other courses below the college level.

The substantial increases effective October 1, 1967, in G.I. bill allowances, and the addition of on-the-job and farm cooperative training assistance, plus a new program of flight training allowances, are expected to increase the number of California trainees participating in these new G.I. Bill program this year.

Under legislation signed recently by the President, the G. I. Bill allowance for full-time college students will be $130 a month for a veteran with no dependents, $155 a month for a veteran with one dependent, and $175 a month for a veteran with two dependents, plus $10 for each additional dependent.

Vietnam veterans and others who have had 181 days of active duty and were released after Jan. 31, 1955, are eligible for the G.I. Bill, Webster said. Assistance in enrolling in an approved program is available at the Los Angeles VA regional office.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation noted, "Police officials know from experience that crime prevention and enforcement of the law are a bit more complicated than the supervision of a church picnic. Sociological dreamers notwithstanding, crime cannot be explained away. It can be given aliases, but by any other name it is still crime -- violations of the laws of our land. And it is still increasing."

CHP says

Don't stop CHP cars for mechanical check

Local motorists were urged not to stop California Highway Patrol officers out on the freeway simply to have them clear written warnings acquired earlier in a vehicle inspection lane.

"In the first place, it is unlawful to stop on a freeway for anything other than emergency purposes," declared California Highway Patrol Captain Vernon F. Nicholson of the San Bernardino area office.

"In the second place it is a highly dangerous place to stop. We have had a number of fatal and serious injury accidents recently where motorists have been forced to park on a freeway due to mechanical difficulties.

The mechanical warnings written notice, which states an equipment violation exists, and requires it to be corrected within a given number of days. When the violation is corrected the notice must be cleared off the books by the patrol.

The captain pointed out the mechanical warnings can be cleared at the local California Highway Patrol office or at any other location other than a freeway.

County gets $737,635 for road improvement

The amounts California counties will receive next fiscal year to improve their systems of federal-aid secondary county roads were announced today by State Highway Engineer John Legarra.

Legarra said the funds are contained in the state highway budget adopted last month by the California Highway Commission. The budget and all programs it finances are effective on July 1, 1968.

San Bernardino County will receive $637,635 in federal funds and $100,000 in State of California matching funds.

San Bernardino County tied the list with that total of $737,635. Fresno County was second with $523,472, and Kern County third with $504,183. They were among the 23 counties which receive the maximum of $100,000 in state funds.

The combined statewide total was $12,653,242.

a formula involving rural population, area, and miles of rural-mail routes. The City and County of San Francisco being entirely urban is excluded from the program by State law.

The federal funds were originally derived from fuel taxes paid by California highway users into a trust fund established by Congress.

Legarra said that a county may accumulate up to three years' apportionments and then apply the total to a single project.

This permits a county with a comparatively small allotment to construct a substantial project.

The system of county roads which will benefit from these monies was established by joint action of county officials and the California Division of Highways.

JOHN TOWERS, administrator of San Antonio Community Hospital, and Henry Condino, who served as Chairman for United Fund among 600 hospital employees, are shown handing Tom Vais, United Fund Executive Director a check for $8,000 covering solicitations for 1967.

With 90% of 600 employees participating during this current drive, San Antonio Hospital doubled the giving from last year's drive. Under the chairmanship of Condino from the X-Ray department, the hospital administrative staff helped provide the leadership and all the Hospital Department Heads made up the campaign solicitation team. United Fund Luncheon is set for Nov. 9 at which time an award will be made to the hospital recognizing the effort made on behalf of the West End United Fund and the 27 participating agencies.

Floyd Stork heads Alta Loma March of Dimes Drive

"If we had a wish to make, we would wish a healthy and peaceful life for every baby born every day in San Bernardino County," Floyd N. Stork, made this statement following acceptance to direct the 1968 Alta Loma March of Dimes Drive.

Even though we know our wish cannot yet be, we continue our battle against childhood crippling defects to give all American children a better chance to be well born.

"To do this, we need to do a better job in prenatal care and education and the care of premature infants," declared Mr. Stork. "Every year 250,000 of our children are born with serious birth defects. Doctors can now do a great deal to protect the health of pregnant women and their unborn children. Yet many are not taking advantage of available medical care.

At any given time, there are more than 3 million pregnant women in the United States. An alarming number of them do not seek medical attention until actual delivery of their babies. To encourage every pregnant woman to protect herself and her unborn child, The National Foundation March of Dimes has launched a prenatal care program in conjunction with local, state and federal agencies.

The March of Dimes also supports nearly 100 birth defect centers and research establishments which bring the combined skills of teams of medical experts to bear on the complex birth defects problem.

"There is so much that can be done for so many, and the March of Dimes can do it... with our help volunteers," Mr. Stork continued.

The traditional March of Dimes drive begins on January 2, 1968 and concludes on January 31 with the Mothers' March against birth defects.
